MURDER IN THE FIRST DEGREE

The Third Trial of Miller at Seattle Results in Conviction

SEATTLE, June . The jury in the case of the territory of Washington against George H. Miller for the murder of J. Manning Coleman and Wilbur Patten returned a verdict this evening guilty of murder in the first degree. The murder occurred February 8, 1886. Coleman was coming here [illegible] Washington [illegible] his farm to Seattle, accompanied by Wilbur Patten, a young neighbor, attending [illegible] Seattle. Both were [illegible] the boat was found and afterwards the bodies of the [illegible] Miller finally were the [illegible] Miller [illegible] characters.
Miller was arrested but secured a change of venue to Port Townsend [illegible] At the trial at that place the jury [illegible] discharged [illegible] and to-day the third trial was completed with the above result. The verdict [illegible] one of the most terrible tragedies ever perpetrated in this territory

ANOTHER ACCOUNT

SEATTLE, June .—The third trial of George H. Miller for the murder of J. M. Coleman on Lake Washington near this city, February 8, 1886, has [illegible]. The closing argument was concluded by Prosecuting Attorney Donald [illegible]. At 1:30 Chief Justice Jones made his charge to the jury. He went into details and carefully reviewed the testimony, going over the ground and explaining to the jury [illegible] points which were not offered in his former charge, endeavoring to make it so plain that they could not help understand the true status of the case. The charge is quite lengthy and is one of the most complete and comprehensive ever given to a jury. The jury retired at 3 o'clock. The men were out one hour and forty five minutes when they returned a sealed verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree.
The court will be in session in the morning, when the prisoner will be brought in and sentenced and the jury discharged.
This has ended a case which has been fought to the death by able counsel on both sides. The first trial was had some time last year on a change of venue before Chief Justice Greene at Port Townsend, at which the jury stood nine for conviction and were discharged. The second trial was held in this city before Chief Justice Jones at the April term, when the jury stood ten to two. The third and last trial began here last Tuesday and ended to-day as above stated. While the evidence has been almost entirely circumstantial, as near as can be learned the verdict gives entire satisfaction to the citizens of this section.

SEATTLE NOTES

The man Fred Hendrickstein, stabbed on board the Louisiana a few weeks ago and taken to the marine hospital at Port Townsend, has so far recovered as to be able to be discharged from the hospital. Sheriff Cochrane was notified to-day by letter that they will send him to appear at the trial of his assailant, Brown.
The steamship City of Chester arrived here at 1:30 to-day with fifty-four cabin and steerage passengers and ninety tons of freight.

AN ACTIVE VOLCANO

Report of the Explorers Sent Out by Governor Torres

TUCSON, A. T., June .—The Star's special from Hermosillo says: The explorers sent out by Gov. Torres to ascertain the existence of the volcano [illegible] reported near Bavispe, Sonora, have returned. They report an active volcano fourteen miles south east of Bavispe in the Sierra Madre mountains. The party could not approach nearer than within four miles of the mountain. The crater was pouring forth immense volumes of smoke, fire and lava. Boiling water issued from the side of the mountain and lava in vast waves slowly poured down the mountain side into canyons which are being filled up. The boiling water had destroyed all vegetation in the valleys in the vicinity.
One peculiar feature of the volcano was its great activity. Boulders weighing tons are hurled down from the crater. The exploring party say the noise proceeding from the mountain is most terrific, like a number of engines at work, accompanied by a sound of thunder. The air is dense with smoke and cinders. The party had great difficulty in approaching within four miles of the mountain, owing to great chasms made by the earthquake, and all roads and trails are totally wiped out.
One of the party states that the country around the vicinity of the volcano for many miles looks like judgment day. The entire surface of the earth presents a woe-begone appearance within ten miles of the volcano. The town of Bavispe is a complete ruin. The people have all moved out on the high plains and are living in tents and in mortal fear. There is a constant tremor and a continual series of shocks daily.
Since the first earthquake shock there have been one or more tremors daily throughout Arizona. Last night at 11:40 quite a heavy shock was felt here.

FROM SALEM

Claim for a Reward—A Fatal Stroke of Paralysis, Etc.

SALEM, June .—Detective Singleton of Portland to-day sent to Gov. Pennoyer through his attorneys his claim for the $ reward for the apprehension of the murderer of Marple, which was offered in the proclamation last November by Gov. Moody. It is not probable that the claim will be allowed, since the proclamation offered the reward subject to approval of the legislature for murderers not yet apprehended. Marple had already been arrested when the proclamation was issued.
Railroad Commissioners Slater and Waldo [illegible] and clerk Bell are in Ashland examining into a charge of discrimination in railroad rates made from that place. The commission will visit Roseburg, Grants Pass and Corvallis before returning. From the latter place they will go over the Oregon Pacific and examine into the condition of the bridges of that road, which are said to be very precarious in winter time. The commission will meet in Salem Saturday at [illegible] M.
Articles were to-day filed in the office of the secretary of state incorporating the Everding [illegible] Co. of Portland, capital stock $50,000. Incorporators: Richard Everding, S. Farrell and Henry Everding. The Hecla Mining Company and the Monitor Mining Company, of which mention was made in to-day's OREGONIAN, also filed articles of incorporation with a capital stock [illegible]. Also the Portland Savings bank filed supplementary articles increasing the powers of incorporation.
Gov. Pennoyer has made the following appointments: Notaries public [illegible] commissioner of deeds for Oregon, Walter D. [illegible] Baltimore, Md.
Mrs. [illegible] a lady living east of [illegible] who came down with her husband to attend the funeral of her brother, D. W. Jones, south of Salem, was at [illegible] o'clock this morning taken with paralysis. She died at [illegible] o'clock this afternoon.
Commencement exercises of the university were continued by public examinations this morning [illegible]. This afternoon the chapel was filled to hear a public piano recital of pupils of Mrs. Frankie Jones, principal of the piano instrument department of the conservatory of music. The entertainment was most satisfactory. To-night the chapel is literally jammed with an audience witnessing the graduating exercises of the third preparatory. There are over twenty graduates. After the performance President Van Scoy entertains both the third preparatory and the senior class at the Monroe house. Covers will be laid for forty.

CALIFORNIA

SAN FRANCISCO WILL NOT CELEBRATE

SAN FRANCISCO, June .—At a meeting to-night of the sub-committee of the committee of [illegible] Fourth of July celebration, after a spirited discussion a motion was carried providing that a committee of three should be appointed to draw up an address stating that it was found utterly impracticable to give a celebration befitting this city, and that the $ which had been appropriated for the Fourth of July should be expended in [illegible] and adorning the town. This action was taken after the efforts to secure the presence of the Nat[illegible] [illegible] failed. It was [illegible] that by this course the [illegible] of the [illegible] arranging for celebration would [illegible] belonged to the [illegible]

[illegible]

T and Portland has been accepted and Thornton of Dayton, W. T., has been appointed to fill the vacancy.
Travel on the California & Oregon railroad has been growing very rapidly since the extension of the road to Coles and consequent reduction of the stage drive to twenty miles. Two full Pullman sleepers left last evening, a majority of the passengers going through to Portland.
A local paper says: Bishop Fowler of the M. E. church has gone to deliver the baccalaureate address at the commencement of Willamette university. Before his return to this city he intends to make a short visit to Alaska in company with Charles Goodall and family. The bishop's wife and son will accompany the party.
T. J. Davidson, an Eastern Oregon gentleman lately retired, has returned here from Seattle. [illegible] of Portland is at the [illegible] house.

NEWS FROM HONOLULU

SAN FRANCISCO, June .—Advices from Honolulu show that the new war ship [illegible] which constitutes the Hawaiian navy has sailed for Samoa. The ship cost the government $ [illegible] Prior to sailing three officers of the navy were [illegible] for misconduct and fighting, and the boatswain deserted with his uniform and advance salary. The ship finally sailed May 18.
The Honolulu Gazette renews its attack on the king for alleged bribery in the opium matter. [illegible] affidavits from fourteen people [illegible] the king on December [illegible] received $ [illegible] in a basket. A few days later a check for ten thousand was handed to the king personally. Subsequently [illegible] thousand more was demanded and paid to the king by a Chinaman named Aki. The king it is claimed, therefore promised to grant Aki a license for selling opium but gave it to another Chinaman named Chun Fung. It is claimed that none of Aki's money has been returned. The matter is now in the hands of the Chinese minister at Washington.

A RUMOR [illegible]

SAN FRANCISCO, June .—In theatrical circles a rumor is current that Mrs. Langtry's visit to the Pacific coast is not only to fill certain theatrical engagements, but to avail herself of the divorce laws of California in order that she may be free to marry again. Her advance agent being asked if the rumor was true replied that he does not know. He is of the opinion, however, that Mrs. Langtry will not procure a divorce from her present husband and wed another until she retires from the stage, which will not be for several years. He admitted that Lily intended to reside here for a while after the disbanding of her company, and that he had been empowered by her to rent and furnish a residence for her use. This is probably all the foundation there is for the rumor.

ALLEGED ILL TREATMENT OF JAPANESE

SAN FRANCISCO, June . At a regular meeting of Methodist ministers of this city held last evening, M. Harris, a Japanese missionary, appeared before them and spoke at length upon the alleged ill treatment of forty-seven Japanese who were recently detained in the quarantine steamer W. H. Macy. He stated that they were improperly fed and were subject to rather severe treatment at the hands of the officers of the steamer. The women, he said, were also half starved and were treated in a similar manner. Several representative Japanese and the Japanese consul held a conference last Friday night, and a committee was appointed to wait upon the steamship company and ask for an investigation into the matter.

THE CALIFORNIA WHEAT CROP

SAN FRANCISCO, June 7.—The secretary of the produce exchange has collected reports as to the condition of wheat up to June 1 throughout California. The weather during May was favorable until the 2 th, when the dry wind which prevailed for three days caused some damage. This is estimated in certain sections at per cent, and in others nominal. The summary indicates that the northern portion of the state including Sacramento county will turn out about the same amount of wheat as last year. The yield of the San Joaquin valley is placed at 60 per cent of last year. From San Francisco south west of the coast range the yield will not exceed 45 per cent of last year.

RAILROAD NOTES

SAN FRANCISCO, June . Last winter about 15,000 Eastern visitors came to California, and this season, beginning in September, according to the calculations of overland railroad managers over 40,000 excursionists will come.
W. D. Sanborn of the Burlington road, who returned yesterday from Portland, claims to have made arrangements by which the larger part of the canned salmon shipments will be made over his road.

THE DISPATCH CONFIRMED

SAN DIEGO, June .—E. S. Babcock, a leading capitalist here, said to-day that the press dispatch of Sunday associating the Oceanic line of steamers with the Santa Fe for the transportation of Australian mails to England was correct. He has been in treaty for six weeks with J. D. Spreckles of San Francisco and has secured carte blanche in making all rates in the matter for the Santa Fe.

BOUND FOR PORTLAND

SAN FRANCISCO, June 7.—Considerable curiosity was manifested on the streets to-day by the appearance of a light covered spring wagon with the title "La Belle" on its sides, containing a family consisting of a man, wife and three children, one a babe in arms, and an old lady who are on their way from San Diego to Portland.

BUNKER HILL ASSOCIATION

SAN FRANCISCO, June .—The Bunker Hill Association held a special meeting here to-day. The literary committee reported that Clyde Baker, nephew of Col. E. D. Baker, would deliver an oration, and that Prof. E. Knowlton would give a reading, and that it awaited a reply from Joaquin Miller as to a poem.

TWO MEN HURT

YREKA, June . J. J. Boynton and J. W. Ayres, while engaged in moving a water tank of the Southern Pacific railroad near Montague, were seriously hurt by heavy timbers falling upon them. The men were placed on the south bound train to be taken to the railroad hospital at Sacramento.

SANTA CLARA COLLEGE

SAN FRANCISCO, June .—At the commencement exercises at Santa Clara College to-day there was awarded to Joseph Fitzgerald of The Dalles a commercial certificate for having completed a three years course in the commercial department.

GRAND GROVE OF DRUIDS

SAN FRANCISCO, June . The twenty-third annual session of the Grand Grove of Druids began here this morning in Druids' hall. There are about 60 representatives in attendance besides grand officers and standing committees.

QUICKSILVER AND OYSTERS

SAN FRANCISCO, June . The Willamette Valley made the trip down from Yaquina in forty [illegible] hours. Among her cargo were eight flasks of quicksilver and twenty-five sacks of oysters.

THE [illegible]

TACOMA, June . A party of ladies and gentlemen from the East made a [illegible] trip over the [illegible] track from Tacoma to Wenatchee. Among those who made this first trip were Charles B. Wright [illegible] Brockman of New York [illegible]. The opening of this road [illegible] will be formally opened for travel about the [illegible]

THE POSTAL TELEGRAPH CASE

OLYMPIA, June .—Argument commenced today in the district court before Judge [illegible] in the Postal Telegraph case. The matter will probably occupy three days in argument.
The steamer Zephyr arrived this evening having on board about seventy excursionists from Tacoma, accompanied by a brass band. They were met at the wharf by the Olympia cornet band and a large number of citizens.

WELCOME SHOWERS AT WALLA WALLA

WALLA WALLA, June .—The rain of the past two days is welcomed by farmers. Three days more of hot weather would have ruined all the grain sown in the valley. It is now raining steadily.

IN THE COMMONS

LONDON, June .—In the commons to-day Hon. W. H. Smith, government leader, said that he hoped that the papers in relation to the new Egyptian convention would be issued by the government in a few days. Negotiations with France concerning the New Hebrides question are still in progress, but the delay is not the fault of England.
Balfour, chief secretary for Ireland, in reply to a question by Dillon regarding the employment of gunboats to assist in evictions on Clare island, declared that the government would not hesitate to employ any of the forces at its disposal to execute the decrees of the law courts.
An amendment to exclude cases for treason felony from trial by special jurors was defeated 30 to 10.
Several more amendments were rejected, the last with the aid of closure, 20 to 38.
Smith moved that clause 3 stand as part of the bill.
The chairman said there were still several amendments to be discussed before he could put Smith's motion. Four other amendments were discussed and rejected.
Smith's motion was then carried 211 to 83.

LONDON WOOL SALES

LONDON, June .—The third series of wool sales opened to-day with a large attendance of home and foreign buyers. The bidding was not brisk, though better than was expected, prices of merino ranging from the lowest April sales to a half penny lower. Cross breeds were abundant at nearly a penny lower from April's closing. Arrivals at the close of the list on May 20 were 8 ,385 bales. Deducting from this the quantity forwarded direct leaves 35,600 available. Following are the sales of the day:
New South Wales, 1600 bales, scoured 10 d @1s 6¼d; do locks and pieces 10d@1s 4½d; greasy 8d@10 d; do locks and pieces 4d@3¼d.

TRAFFIC IN CHILDREN

LONDON, June .—Since the revelations made by the Pall Mall Gazette and the passage of the criminal law amendment bill the public have believed that traffic in children is impossible. A case in the Lambeth police court therefore caused a universal sensation of horror. Edward Procknell and three women were arrested, charged with keeping houses of ill repute and having procured for their patrons a score of girls from ten to fourteen years of age. The prisoners and victims are of humble rank. The evidence so far shows that the seducers of the girls belong to the same class. The government will prosecute the prisoners, all of whom were remanded.
Detective Stevens, an employe of the Reformatory and Refuge Union, who has taken the principal part in bringing to light these crimes, states that during the past four years he has rescued 490 girls between the ages of 1 and 14 years from lives of crime.

LONDON RACES

LONDON, June .—The Ascot jubilee cup was won by Minting; St. Mirin second, Aintree third. There were five starters.

PORTLAND, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 8, 1887.

MR. FISKE AND THE CONSTITUTION.

Mr. John Fiske has an excellent article in the current number of the Atlantic Monthly on "The Completed Work of the Federal Convention," which has drawn forth warm praise from the thinking press of the country. In this article Mr. Fiske discusses the right to make paper notes legal tender, and his historic investigation of the subject brings him to the clear conviction that the framers of the constitution meant to prohibit this power. The great jurists Marshall, Webster, Story Curtis and Nelson agreed that the constitution did practically prohibit it, and Mr. Fiske believes that there "is little doubt that the legal tender act of 1862 was passed in flagrant violation of the constitution;" and he further says that the framers of the constitution when they refused to grant such power firmly believed this was sufficient, that it was tantamount to absolute prohibition.

Undoubtedly Mr. Fiske is historically correct, and in our judgment congress when it passed the act had probably little doubt that their action was unconstitutional; but even if it had been directly prohibited it is quite probable the act would have been passed. Some juggle of words, some pettifogging construction would have served the purpose, for the very good reason that in war-time laws are silent. The legal tender act was really forced through as a war measure, and it was not the only act of clearly unconstitutional authority that was passed during the great conflict. Secretary Chase never defended it for a moment as constitutional, but said it was a war measure that he reluctantly recommended because the sinews of war were needed in shape of dollars as well as soldiers. He could not borrow money quickly enough to meet our enormous expenses; and the legal tender act was only a forced loan to which Chase, congress and people patriotically consented, and Chase, congress and people did right in declining to stand by the letter of the constitution when the nation was in danger of death for lack of instant supplies. Chase always said that the moment the war was over the act ought to be repealed, like many other measures which stood for the violent wrenching of the constitution, even to its clear violation to meet the emergency of a gigantic war. Under the same conditions we would do the same thing to-morrow. It was a most expensive and costly way to raise money; it was probably unconstitutional, but there is no doubt that it was wisdom to make this forced loan out of the people and get money at once to organize, equip and set in motion the vast armies of the Union.

Within or without the constitution we had to get money at once. Chase went to New York; he felt of European financiers, but all were cold, or if not cold were unable to answer the greatness of the demands of a war that cost a million dollars a day. Robert B. Minturn, of New York, showed clearly by figures that the people paid a most enormous shave for their money, but it served us when nothing but money immediately would meet the emergency, and in a broad sense it could only be regarded as included among other enormous sacrifices of the rights, privileges, comforts and equities of peace that every nation has to submit to, and does with cheerful patriotism submit to, when it is fighting for existence. We only did under doubtful constitutional warrant what every great people have been driven to do when in desperate straits. So able a man as Frederick the Great of Prussia, who in peace was, for a despot, a most economical, just and wise ruler, was driven by the desperation of the terrible "Seven Years' War" to debase the coinage, which was only another expression for such a forced loan from the people as was represented by our action in making our government paper legal tender.

If any other course than this costly and unconstitutional expedient had been open to Chase he would not have been justified in urging it upon congress, but congress agreed with him that money as well as men were a military necessity, and they rightly made the end justify the unwelcome and expensive means. Chase never had any other defense for it. He declared that it ought not to outlast the terrible emergency that compelled its employment. It was a fight for life; and the people, outside of the copperheads, who questioned the constitutionality of everything from the right of coercion down to the draft and the income tax, were the only grumblers. The people suffered under this sacrifice, but not half as much as other nations have in history in consequence of a depreciated paper currency, the consequence of long years of war, such as the American colonies and the first French republic. We paid too dear for our whistle, if it was better to risk failure of success than to submit to a shave for money, but if it was wise to force a popular loan at once and make the salvation of the nation a certainty, then we did not pay too much. But the wisdom of Chase ought to have been obeyed and the legal tender act should have expired with the desperate necessity for its doubtful constitutional employment. Mr. Fiske in his consideration of the method of counting the votes for president and vice-president in the famous contest of 1876-77 agrees with Roscoe Conkling, who alone of his party in congress insisted from the start that since the framers of the constitution intended that the counting of the votes should be by the senate and the house together, under joint rules by them established; that it was a work too important to be left to the senate alone, and that it was intolerable to leave this work to the presiding officer of the senate, as proposed and unflinchingly urged by Morton of Indiana. The dangers apprehended from the exercise of this power by Senator Ferry, then president of the Senate, were forcibly pointed out by Conkling, and to his statesmanlike opposition Mr. Fiske ascribes the second sober judgment which resulted in the appointment of the electoral commission.

THE BEGINNINGS OF NEW ENGLAND.

The course of Mr. Fiske, called "The Western Campaigns of the Civil War," closes to-night with "Chattanooga," a battle which admits of a splendid series of landscape pictures as well as maps, etc. This course is to be followed by the series called "The Beginnings of New England" for five evenings, Friday next being the first. Though not illustrated with pictures, it is a course which will draw out all Mr. Fiske's finest powers, and the first lecture, that called "The Roman Idea and the English Idea," is pronounced by good judges the most memorable historical lecture ever given in America. The opportunity given to our citizens in all these courses—including that at the high school of ten lectures—is an unparalleled one in the history of the city, and at a price which seems merely nominal. We owe all this to the fund subscribed by a dozen farsighted men, who appreciate that the intellectual side of civilization is worth fostering, and that Portland may shine as brightly as the center of such influences as by material enterprises.

THE CLEARWATER EXTENSION.

The extension of the Oregon Railway & Navigation road from Pomeroy into the Potlach or Clearwater country is only a little less important than the proposed extensions into the Coeur d'Alene mines and to Spokane Falls. Here is a country equal or superior to the region about Spokane. It has broad acres of rich land, fine deposits of mineral, abundant timber, extensive range—everything but a large population. The wealth of the comparatively small population now in the country attests its magnificent resources. A region so near at hand and so rich in possibilities ought to be annexed to Portland by the tie of direct transportation, if for no immediate reason, as a means of holding it against competition. There is reason to believe that the Northern Pacific is eager to get into the Potlatch country and that it intends to put a branch there if possible by stealth. With its Palouse branch completed, there will be nothing to prevent a speedy advance to the Clearwater, and such movement is likely to be made if the Oregon Railway & Navigation does not first possess itself of the field. There are those who believe this to be the chief and concealed purpose of the Palouse branch.

The considerations involved are so important for Portland that we cannot refrain from urging the matter of the Clearwater extension upon the new management of the Oregon Railway & Navigation Company. Prompt action will secure permanently for Portland a rich district, while delay may give it into the hands of our rivals. We need not remind the new management that the interests of the city and of the railroad are identical in this matter. Let the railroad show an active spirit and it will find no mean ally in the wealth and business enterprise of Portland.

It is now suggested that President Cleveland's reason for coming to the conclusion not to visit this coast is the fact that he has already seen almost our entire democratic population at Washington.

THE EAST SIDE.

A NEW CITY SURVEYOR—JUDGES OF ELECTION APPOINTED—NEWS NOTES.

NEWS NOTES.

An extra sleeper was attached to the O. & C. last night.

The wife of John Went leaves for the Coeur d'Alene to-day for her health.

The steamer Multnomah will take the Baptist and Presbyterian excursion to Latourelle falls Saturday. Leaves Portland at 7, Mizpah chapel 7:15, and Doud's wharf 7:30. Adults, 50 cents; children under 12, 25 cents. Brass band will go with the excursion. Lunch served on board.

The cruel treatment of a boy by his parents is reported from Holladay's addition. It is stated that the boy is compelled to herd a cow, and whether rain or sunshine the little fellow is compelled to remain outside. Yesterday and the day before, during the heavy rain, his father made him remain out. When asked why he did not go in the house out of the storm he replied that his father would beat him if he did.

THE AGENT NUISANCE.

Citizens of East Portland are vigorous in their denunciation of the "agent" or "peddler" nuisance. The summer crop of these pests is something phenomenal. Every few minutes the housewife has to drop her baking, or stewing, or the baby, or whatever else she may be taking care of, and rush to the door, to find—one of these agents or peddlers, with something to sell. To busy, weary, half-sick mothers, burdened with the cares of home, this sort of interruption is an intolerable nuisance and imposition. To add insult to injury, some of the females who are peddling face powder or freckle-juice have impudence enough to walk right into the house without so much as asking, and get "huffy" and insulting if the lady refuses to buy her stuff. There ought to be some way to give people relief from this gang. One resident, whose wife is not well and is being tormented by this means, has put the following on his gate: "Notice to Agents and Peddlers—We do not want to buy anything. Do not knock. Look out for the dog."

BISHOP FOWLER AT THE TABERNACLE.

An immense audience gathered at the Tabernacle last night to listen to Bishop C. H. Fowler, D. D., LL. D., of San Francisco. Introductory services were as follows: Reading of the 114th hymn by Rev. G. M. Peirce; prayer by Rev. I. D. Driver; reading of the 12th chapter of Isaiah by Rev. H. K. Hines; reading of the 85th hymn by Rev. E. W. Caswell.

Bishop Fowler took for his text I Timothy, 4-8: "Bodily exercise profiteth you little, but godliness is profitable in all things." He said:

We are very much the creatures of habit. If here on the Sabbath, at a regular service, you would be in a prayerful mood. But this is a business day. We are here entangled with business cares and concerns. I wish you would stop a moment and dismiss your cares and enter into the spirit of the service. The subject is "Godliness pays." There are many highways to the soul. Along every highway are swarms seeking to capture your soul. In the winding streams of our passions he launches his gunboats. He presents the question of our salvation as one of profit. He gives us a chance to handle the question of our salvation. God treats it as a bargain. God furnishes all the capital. We may realize all the margins. Manhood is the marvelous ability turned over by twenty springs and summers. To help us to understand it God puts it in such a shape that we can understand, and cries out: "What will a man give in exchange for his soul?" Also, "Godliness is profitable to all things."

Remember that it is not the case of a man investing his own capital. It is rather the case of a man that has [illegible] a mortgage, and realized on the property. [illegible] investment is not yours. [illegible] talents are lent [illegible] all these [illegible] character. [illegible] a negative investment. [illegible] of good. Lord, good devil, [illegible] we may fail. [illegible]

There is a [illegible] for all to stand for the [illegible]. We [illegible] rather that at the tap of drum, seeks masked batteries, even though to die. We despise the coward who skulked. For the one, history piles its monument. For the other, we only ask that oblivion may hide him.

Notice another fact. The very stress put upon this investment by the Lord demonstrates that to us it is an investment of the utmost importance. Every argument in the divine range is based on the judgment. Every influence is brought to bear that we may make this investment. Heaven itself opens its pearly gates, and shows its glories to help here. God leaps out of his glory and pleads with us to make the investment. Surely there must be something very important here. What God wants is surrender. This is the thing. Yet we must put in ourselves. It must go in in such a way that it will count for the Lord.

Only one other thing have we to put in, that is, sin. We have a clean title here; no one disputes our title. Put in the darling sin; the mean sin; the tricky sin. Put in that sin that makes easy of the Sabbath. Sin has done us no good. It has only filled us with sorrow. Sin is the awful thing that God hates. Put it in. I can find nothing else that you can put in.

Questions of commerce occupy the most of the brain of the ages. Some complain of church burdens. A single wine party will cost you more than your pew rent for fifty years. The truth is, you say I love to do both. No, unless it is your own fault. You say—I will do neither. Yes you will. You can't dodge burdens. It pays better to work with the church. Working with the church you are cut off only from sin. For one sin the nation pays vastly more than for all good. Again, where is the commerce of the world? With Christian nations. Again, if there were no heaven, no future, it would pay us to serve our God.

Bishop Fowler was listened to with profound attention and created a deep impression.

THE WATER COMMITTEE.

More Demand for New Mains in the Outskirts of Town.

Receipts and Expenses Since the Committee have had Charge of the Works—Enormous Waste of Water—Rules and Regulations.

A regular meeting of the water committee was held yesterday afternoon, Chairman Failing presiding. Present: Messrs. Dekum, Fleischner, Gates, Johnson, Ladd, Lewis, Loewenberg, Richardson, W. K. Smith and Therkelsen and Clerk Schuyler.

COMMUNICATIONS.

From J. W. Holman and others residing on E street, between Nineteenth and Twentieth, asking that a main be laid on E street, between Nineteenth and Twenty-first; referred to sub-committee on construction.

From Joseph Gaston and others, asking for a main on the plateau west of Tanner creek gulch; same reference.

From the city attorney, reporting that the mayor and council alone were authorized to grant the right of way to the Portland & Willamette Valley railroad through the Palatine hill property. The clerk was instructed to address the council, stating that the committee recommend that the right of way be granted on conditions suggested by the engineer as to the switch, etc.

From the city attorney reporting on the legal proceedings to be taken in case a compromise is not effected with the Bull Run Water & Power Company; filed.

CONCERNING NEW MAINS.

Engineer Smith submitted reports on three petitions for extension of service in the city.

In the matter of a small reservoir in the city park, he reported that it would be little higher than the present high service reservoir on Eighth street, and would be of no use in connection with the proposed large reservoir in the park for the Bull Run system if ever it was established.

With reference to an extension of the hydraulic main down Front street, he reported that a ten-inch pipe to parallel the Hydraulic Elevator Company's main, and fifty fire hydrants, would cost about $10,000.

With reference to the petition for a main on S street from Fifteenth to Nineteenth, he reported the cost would be about $900. The reports were referred to the sub-committee on construction.

Later on at the meeting there was some informal discussion of the question of extending mains. The committee are almost a unit in a desire to accommodate the public, and demands come from the outskirts in all directions—from the cricket grounds, from the Gaston neighborhood, from the western end of B street, from the section surrounding the Good Samaritan hospital, and several neighborhoods in the west end between the hospital and Jackson's carriage factory. All these neighborhoods cannot be accommodated unless the committee sell more bonds and build with the proceeds.

The income from water rents at the reduced rates is just enough to pay running expenses, meet the interest of $25,000 per annum, and leave a small surplus for repairs and accidents. It is argued that if the mains are extended the receipts will naturally be increased; but in neighborhoods where dwellings are scattered (as is the case where new mains are demanded), the receipts will not be in proportion to the outlay. The cost of laying a main is as much where there is one water consumer to the block as where there are ten.

The committee have the authority to issue $200,000 more bonds, but there is little desire to increase the present indebtedness of $500,000, and the annual interest account. Nor is there a desire to raise the rates of water in order to accumulate enough surplus to lay the new mains petitioned for; so it looks as if the petitioners will have to wait a little while before they can be accommodated. In connection with expenditures there is also to be considered the question of acquiring water and riparian rights on Bull Run.

FIVE MONTHS' FINANCES.

The sub-committee on waterworks, consisting of Messrs. Failing, Richardson and Fleischner, presented the following report of the trial balance at the end of last month:

RECEIPTS FROM JAN. 1 TO MAY 31.

For ordinary water rates	$37,496 12
Water for building purposes	52 65
Elevators	1,745 00

	$39,369 27	$39,369 27

Receipts for May were $6266 34 (which may be considered a fair monthly average), not including about $200 from the city, whose bills are unpaid, and $791 93 still delinquent.

The sub-committee asked authority to pay the city treasurer $2500 for the 30th inst. This, with the $10,000 in his hands, would meet the semi-annual interest on the bonds. The report was adopted.

ENORMOUS WASTE OF WATER.

During May the consumption of water was 201 gallons a day per capita; that is, for every man, woman and child in Portland. This is more than double the consumption of any other city in the United States, and the only conclusion is that an enormous quantity is constantly wasted. Unless this waste is checked there can be no further reduction in rates.

Engineer Smith was instructed to measure the water in the south fork of Bull Run as often as he deemed advisable, in order to ascertain its volume.

A long list of rules and regulations for water consumers was read and adopted, and 7000 copies ordered printed in pamphlet form. Adjourned.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

OFFICES REMOVED.—The contracted nature of the room recently occupied by G A Steel & Co the insurance agents necessitated a change The firm sought more central and commodious quarters in the large and well lighted rooms in the Merchants National bank building First between Alder and Washington The rooms are furnished in a manner most convenient to the character of business, and afford every facility for rapid dispatch During the time Steel & Co have conducted the agencies under their control a marked increase in traffic has shown itself The State Investment Insurance Company was the first agency taken, and its policies are now generally held in this community and elsewhere as excellent security against fire loss Later the firm fortunately secured the general agency of the Anglo Nevada Assurance Incorporation which began business with two million dollars paid up capital a better showing at the beginning than any other company in the United States can boast of Its business since inception has been phenomenal The wealthiest men of California are represented among the stockholders of the Anglo Nevada consequently it is solid as a rock An Eastern connection has been made whereby the Anglo Nevada now has business in that section In connection with the insurance companies above named Messrs. Steel & Co will engage in the real estate and loan business Having a thorough knowledge of all these branches this firm can assure business men all the advantages possible

ON TRIAL—Edward Clayton the Allen & Lewis burglar was [illegible] trial yesterday for the second time in Judge Stearns's court before a jury The story of how the door was left open [illegible] a watchman employed especially for the occasion allowing himself to be tied up and the killing of the dog was recited at length Ben Cockrill the detective [illegible] discovered that Clayton was a desperate criminal failed to testify yesterday in behalf of the prosecution or for the defense John M Gearin who appeared for Clayton had Cockrill subpenaed as a witness in behalf of the defendant but kept him in the court room all day and never called him to the stand The evidence in the case is all in At half past [illegible] o'clock this morning District Attorney McGinn will make the closing argument after which the case will be given to the jury J A Campbell assisted Mr McGinn in the prosecution There is nothing to relate in the testimony adduced yesterday that differs from that brought out in the previous trial

NEW MANUFACTORY.—Mr Thour Munthe late of Rockford Ill has about completed arrangements for starting a glove factory and a tannery on a large scale for the manufacture of light shoe leather in this city He has leased a building and has his engine and machinery ready to begin work Mr Munthe has had nineteen years experience in the glove business and has the capital necessary to establish and carry it on successfully here He will import skilled labor from the east till such time as trained hands can be supplied here He has written to a friend to come out here and engage in the hosiery business as the material can be had here in abundance and there seems to be no reason why the business cannot be carried on here successfully The great need of this city is manufacturing enterprises and Mr Munthe should receive every encouragement.

THE TANNER CREEK SEWER.—Messrs [illegible] & Jeffery yesterday began the work of laying brick on the Tanner creek sewer The portion between the B street culvert and the wooden culvert through the gas company's block is to be completed first. The culvert is to run in a direct line between these two points while the creek makes a bend A dam has been built in the creek some distance above the lower culvert into which the water is run near the top through a flume a bulkhead preventing it from flowing back and thus allowing the connection between the brick and wooden culverts to be made The brick culvert will be built nearly to the B street culvert and then a dam will be put in the mouth of the culvert and then a flume will carry the water into the completed portion of the sewer and the connection will be built around it

WILL RAISE A CROP ANYHOW.—A farmer from the Washington territory side of the Columbia below Vancouver was in the city yesterday buying seed potatoes He said he had his crop planted and the vines were in blossom when the water covered his land As soon as the water is gone he will plant again and expects to raise a good crop There will doubtless be many others here looking for seed potatoes and it is fortunate that all the old potatoes were not shipped away The destruction of crops on the lowlands along the river entails quite a loss on the owners but there is some offset in the fact that the land is enriched by the sediment deposited and that all mice gophers and other destructive vermin are exterminated

SKULL CRUSHED.—S Ammersen the 9 year-old son of Anton Ammersen of Upper Astoria fell from the roadway in front of the White Star Packing Company's premises yesterday afternoon says the Astorian a distance of twenty feet When picked up it was found that he had struck on his head on a log and his skull was broken The bone was forced in and the brains were oozing out He was carried to his parents house and all that surgical aid could do was done for him but it was thought last evening that nothing could be done for him and it is probable that before this the poor little fellow has breathed his last.

DIVORCES GRANTED.—George C Kinney was yesterday granted a divorce from Jessie R. Kinney on the ground of adultery committed by the defendant in Boston in 1886 The parties were married in North East Harbor province of Nova Scotia November 20 1882. Hester Anne Bowie has been granted a divorce from Charles W Bowie and allowed to resume her maiden name Hester Ann Wright They were joined together August 24 1876 in Clackamas county and during the year 1880 the plaintiff was deserted by the defendant There are two children the issue of the marriage Vienna 9 years and Ida [illegible] years

LAND PAID FOR.—In the probate court yesterday an order was made authorizing D P Thompson and Walter F Burrell executors of the estate of M S Burrell deceased to pay Jacob H Bellinger and John B Bellinger $5158 [illegible] out of the said estate The deceased and the Bellingers had an interest in 1810 54 acres of land in Washington territory and the latter wanted the same sold and the net proceeds divided The court considered it to the interest of the estate to retain the property and made the above order The original advance made by the Bellingers was $987 [illegible] on which a profit of $41[illegible] 25 has accrued

ALLOTMENT TO INDIANS.—It comes to THE OREGONIAN as tolerably direct information that Secretary Lamar has written S B Capen of the Boston Indian Citizenship Committee, that the department is preparing to make an allotment to the Indians of the Siletz reservation over on the west side of Polk county during the present summer The Boston committee is to send an agent to accompany the department agent to see that Mr Lo has a fair show Mr Capen is an enthusiast on the Indian question

AUCTION SALE OF VALUABLE CITY PROPERTY.—On next Saturday morning June 11 Sheriff Jordan will sell at the court house on account of foreclosure of mortgage the Lateer property on the southeast corner of First and Hall streets 6[illegible] feet on First street and 80 feet on Hall street There are good buildings on the land The title has been made perfect by the foreclosure suit and it will be a fine purchase for any one wishing to make a permanent investment or to speculate in Portland business property

AN ATTRACTIVE PICTURE.—An elaborately framed sketch of Paradise Spring Farm showing the houses to be given away with the lots as advertised by Messrs Hennelly Flynn & Co has been placed on exhibition in the window of Woodard Clark & Co corner First and Alder streets where it attracts no little attention The award of these houses will be made at the Casino opera house next Saturday evening instead of the New Market theater as advertised heretofore

NEW SUITS.—William and Joseph Kelly yesterday commenced suit in the state circuit court against A Arfeld & Co to recover $[illegible] 50 on account of goods furnished to the bark County of [illegible] H C Wood and wife have sued W J [illegible] W [illegible] Bullock and A S [illegible] to have them restrained from selling certain property [illegible] to enforce the collection of a judgment of $[illegible] Judge Stearns granted a restraining order pending the hearing of the case

GAMBLERS ANSWER.—[illegible] instituted proceedings in the state circuit court to recover $[illegible] from Paul F [illegible] and Tom Williams claiming that April 30 last he lost this sum in a [illegible] game they were running Yesterday F[illegible] and Williams answered Burk Their story is that they do not owe Burk a cent as instead of losing $164 he won $[illegible] at the game [illegible] that he never lost a cent except what he previously won at the game

POPULAR EXCURSION.—The Christian church and Sunday school give an excursion to Multnomah Falls and the Cascades Saturday June 11 on the elegant steamer S G Reed leaving Ash street wharf [illegible] 30 A M Refreshments served on board Adult 50 cents children 25 cents round trip Tickets for sale at Prentice's [illegible] First street and [illegible] hardware store East Portland

GRAND EXCURSION.—Up the Columbia on the steamer Lurline Saturday June 11 by St Paul's [illegible] Will stop at Latourelle falls for two hours and then proceed to Cascades viewing the magnificent scenery this trip affords Lurline leaves foot [illegible] street at 8 30 A M Tickets [illegible] cents children under 10 years 25 cents Bring well filled lunch baskets

LATOURELLE FALLS.—The Lurline with the Sunday school of St David's church East Portland will leave Dodd's wharf at 8 A M and the foot of Morrison street Portland at 8 30 for a picnic at Latourelle Falls touching at Albina St Johns and Vancouver Refreshments served by St David's Guild A liberal patronage is invited

INCORPORATION.—Articles of incorporation of Everding & Farrell were filed yesterday in the office of the county clerk Objects of the corporation to carry on a general produce and commission business buy and sell real estate etc Capital stock $[illegible] 000 divided into 500 shares Incorporators [illegible] Everding Henry Everding and S Farrell

THE RIVERS.—In the twenty four hours ending at 8 30 yesterday morning Snake river at Lapwai fell [illegible] inches and marked 15 feet 4 inches The Columbia at Celilo fell [illegible] inches and marked 2[illegible] feet [illegible] inches The Willamette at Portland fell four tenths in the twenty four hours ending at [illegible] and marked [illegible]

Is Death Painless

A Philadelphia doctor after years of careful observation says that our demise is as painless as our advent in the world This is certainly reassuring yet notwithstanding these great inducements we still do not court death and shall continue to use Dr Pierce's infallible remedy the Golden Medical Discovery, for consumption spitting of blood shortness of breath weak lungs coughs, bronchitis and kindred affections of the throat and chest. It is unequaled. By druggists.

BRIEF MENTION

Frederick Warde to night in Richelieu

Republican city primaries next Saturday evening from 6 to 8 o clock

The Verein Eintracht will give their annual picnic at Gambrinus gardens on the 19th

It is no surprise to the friends of Sellwood to see that charming little city forge ahead They were sure of it all the time

Hans Boug, the druggist who fraudulently obtained a divorce from his wife has left the city and is supposed to have gone to Victoria.

Mr Sam Wasserman, who has been attending the Albany Law School called at THE OREGONIAN's New York office on the 31st ult. He left for Portland last Saturday

George Clark is to be tried in the police court to day for vagrancy Mrs M [illegible] who runs the Veto lodging house, makes the complaint Policeman Barry arrested Clark

Saw mill men of Mendocino and Humboldt counties speak highly of Wellington Karo's new system of saw hammering doing away with pounding saws all to pieces It is a grand success

Messrs Currin and Noland contractors for surveying the Umatilla reservation left here yesterday with a party to begin the work They will be employed there for the remainder of the year

A pilot started for Salem yesterday morning to bring down the steamer City of Salem which is to be sold here by the U S marshal It was expected that he would start down yesterday afternoon

A huge fir tree standing on the bank of the Willamette near the east side landing of the Sellwood ferry was undermined by the flood and fell yesterday with a tremendous crash striking not far from where the ferry was lying

Mr Corbett the contractor for the artesian well being bored to supply water for the garrison at Vancouver reports that he has got down only [illegible] feet and that work is progressing slowly The bore passes through sand and gravel and cannot be pushed a foot ahead of the drill

Yesterday Rudolph Holchuh was arraigned in Justice Bushwiler's court for assault and battery on and threatening to kill Daniel Gonan of the Swiss restaurant. Holchuh asked that the case be looked into to day and on furnishing bonds for his appearance such an order was made

The postoffice is doing a land office business nowaday Yesterday the sales of stamps and stamped envelopes amounted to within a trifle of $[illegible] 00 The surplus sent in from various money-order offices amounted to $10 000 and there was more than a bushel of coin in the safe passing through in registered packages

Oh [illegible] have you seen the alleged flag which ornaments the staff on the cupola of the custom house It must be the old flag and it looks as if it had braved the battle and the breeze for a thousand years If the administration can't afford a new one the employes in the custom house had better chip in and buy one

Several days ago Franklin A Davis sued Columbia Lancaster and Eliza J Thompson for partition of certain property Davis claiming three sixths or one half of it and averring that Eliza Thompson was entitled to two sixths of it Yesterday she answered the complaint alleging she was the owner of one half of the property and Davis of but two sixths of it

Philip Mahoney who has frequently posed in police court circles has got himself disliked by Andrew Kan proprietor of the Japanese bazaar on Washington street. Kan alleges that Mahoney succeeded in obtaining a lot of goods from him on the representation that a certain clergyman would see that they were paid for and that Mahoney stated what was not true when he set forth that this was a fact

THE STAGE.

FREDERICK WARDE AS VIRGINIUS.—No emotion can appeal more to the sympathy of the average man than that of the love of a father for his child and to those who were present at the New Market theater last evening this thought must have been most prominent The tragedy of Virginius is one of the most sympathetic plays extant and the man who can furnish a faithful portraiture of the outraged father is an artist in every sense of the term In all Mr Warde's repertoire there is no character that so well brings out the strength of his artistic powers as the role of Virginius In the first scene he wins the audience by his tenderness and appreciation of the gentle maidenhood of his young daughter and when he leaves her to defend his country in the tented field the sympathy of his auditors follows her involuntarily But it is in the third act when Lucius brings him tidings of the danger of his daughter that he rises to the heights of dramatic action In this scene his portrayal of suppressed anger, under the guise of seeming calm is simply superb In the forum scene too he was most forcible and dramatic His heroic appeals to and deriding of Appius Claudius and his client were dramatic in the extreme while his colloquies with the tender Virginia were full of tear drawing pathos In the last act he shows the real power of his art His madness is so real he listens for his daughter's voice with such a naturalness and expectation that seems incapable of denial that the realism of the same is simply beyond description It is altogether a great personation and worthy to succeed the illustrious John McCullough

Miss Eugenie Blair made a most charming Virginia. To-night Richelieu.

THE COMING FIREMEN'S TOURNAMENT

Advices from the State Firemen's Association give assurance that the forthcoming annual meeting at Vancouver promises to be a flattering success notwithstanding some outside embarrassment. The action of the Salem department was not of course conducive to harmony in the ranks but the firemen of Vancouver are not easily discouraged, and will spare no pains to make all welcome who will favor them with their presence The Astoria firemen are drilling regularly and will as usual present a rattling team. The Albany boys are preparing for the event while teams are expected from both Lebanon and Eugene City There will be the usual reduction in rates of transportation the O & C railroad selling round trip tickets for one and one-fifth fare The action of the Capital engine in reconsidering their motion to withdraw from the association meets with the approval of their friends everywhere and its delegates will be present to further the interests of the volunteer firemen Walla Walla Seattle and Tacoma have each furnished their assistance and Vancouver will present a hose team that will make it more or less lively for all competitors Many individual firemen will make it a point to be present and a pleasant time is guaranteed to all who may attend

THE EAST.

Conference of Prohibition Leaders at New York.

O'BRIEN'S FAREWELL RECEPTION.

Baltimore's Welcome to Cardinal Gibbons—Ex-Vice President Wheeler's Funeral—The Yellow Fever Scare.

THE PROHIBITIONISTS.

Conference of the Leaders of the Party—A Mass Meeting.

NEW YORK, June 7.—The prohibition leaders from this and adjoining states were in conference to-day in this city.

PROHIBITION MASS MEETING.

There was a large attendance at the prohibition mass meeting in Cooper Union to-night. Very little standing room was left. Gen. W. C. Fisk, of New Jersey, chairman of the general committee, said he saw in the applause which greeted him the unalterable determination that the saloons must go. Funk, editor of the Voice, read eight long resolutions. They were:

First—The late St. John campaign justified a continuation of the prohibition question.

Second—High license and high tax are not steps towards prohibition.

Third—If wrong, the liquor traffic should be outlawed.

Fourth—The prohibition party is the only party for the enemies of the traffic to join.

Fifth—Sympathy should be extended to the laboring people.

Sixth—The licensing of gambling by the Ives pool bill is wrong.

Seventh—Neither of the old parties can bring about prohibition.

Eighth—Among the benefits to be derived from the success of the prohibition party is the breaking up of the solid South and the solid North.

A SPEECH BY FINCH.

Hon. John P. Finch, of Illinois, chairman of the national prohibition party, made the principal speech of the evening. Finch said: "The free school system of this country rests on the desire of the people that their children should be educated, because the people are the rulers. It is most absurd statesmanship to antagonize schools, churches and Sunday schools with those schools of crime, the grog shops. In a country like ours a debauched populace means the overthrow of popular government. The grog shop impairs many intellects, and therefore should be allowed to exist no longer. I charge that the Crosby and Vedder liquor bills were introduced in your state assembly to defeat the proposed constitutional convention. I charge the republicans with a direct understanding with their German allies that they would not vote against the party because of the Crosby bill. There is no other business in the country in which character is at a discount."

ST. JOHN.

Walter T. Mills, of Ohio, explained the objects and work of the National Inter-Collegiate Prohibition Association.

St. John then stepped to the front of the platform. His speech was brief. Among the things he said were: "The Woman's Christian Temperance Union is the greatest organization that ever existed. The republican party is as much in the mud as the democratic party is in the mire. You used could tell them by their breath, but you can't now."

Letters were read from Neal Dow, President Seeley, Frances E. Willard and 100 others.

O'BRIEN'S FAREWELL RECEPTION.

After the Honors of the Evening he Boards the Steamer.

NEW YORK, June 7.—The reception to Editor O'Brien to-night at the Hoffman house was a brilliant affair. Leading citizens united in the invitation thus tendered under the auspices of the Irish National League and the Hoffman house committee of the Irish parliamentary fund. Ex-Mayor Grace presided. On his right were Wm. O'Brien, Bishop Farrell, Governor R. S. Greene, of New Jersey and others. On his left, Mr. Kilbride, Hon. Eugene Kelley, Charles A. Dana, ex-Governor Dorsheimer and others. Toasts were as follows: "Our guest," the chairman, Wm. R. Grace; "The United States," Mr. C. A. Dana; "Ireland and her exiles," Rt. Rev. M. J. O'Farrell, bishop of Trenton; "Gladstone," Rev. W. T. Lloyd, D. D.; "Our sister states," Hon. R. S. Greene, governor of New Jersey; "The press," Col. W. L. Browne.

O'BRIEN'S REMARKS.

In presenting the guest of the evening, Mayor Grace took occasion to laud in glowing terms the learning, patriotism and services of O'Brien. The latter was received with great enthusiasm and proceeded to express his gratitude for the many kindnesses received. Referring to Saturday night's affair he said one would think from the remarks of some of the papers that they envied the laurels of Lansdowne's mobs. He believed American opinion had condemned them emphatically and overwhelmingly. O'Brien referred to the taunts of John McMackin and others, and after explaining again his delicate position, said he believed the American people understood McMackin. He then read a letter from the Irish parliamentary committee, asking him to carry to the people of Ireland $25,000 as part of a subscription raised in this country.

Letters of regret were received from Gov. Hill, Mayor Hewitt, Gen. Sheridan, Roscoe Conkling, Gov. Lounsberry of Connecticut, ex-Gov. Hoadly of Ohio, and President Fitzgerald of the National Land League. The Sixty-ninth regiment escorted Mr. O'Brien to the White Star dock after midnight, and he was safely put aboard the Adriatic, where the final hand-shaking was done.

O'BRIEN SUSTAINED.

NEW YORK, June 7.—O'Brien has received a cablegram from the executive committee of the National League as follows:

The executive committee of the National League in Ireland in meeting assembled, heartily approve your action in keeping the Irish question free from American issues. Ireland's cause appeals to American lovers of liberty without distinction of party, and we feel convinced that no sincere friend will wish us to involve that sacred cause in issues that may delay or hinder success.

HARRINGTON.

CARDINAL GIBBONS.

The People of Baltimore Warmly Welcome him Home.

NEW YORK, June 7.—Cardinal Gibbons took the train this morning for Baltimore. A member of the party accompanying his eminence said that the cardinal was not willing at present to speak on the labor question, but will soon issue an address to Catholics connected with labor organizations, advising them to cut loose from the George-McGlynn party.

CARDINAL GIBBONS WELCOMED HOME.

BALTIMORE, June 7.—When Cardinal Gibbons arrived here the streets leading to the depot were thronged with people. Mayor Hodges and the members of the city council, judges of the courts and the commissioners received the cardinal. On the part of the Catholic societies the cardinal was received by Charles A. Bonaparte, trustees of the cathedral and committees of the clergy. The cardinal was escorted to the cathedral by a procession formed to do honor to his high office. When the head of the column had reached the cardinal's palace there was a halt, and the cardinal, with the clergy and a guard of honor, entered the building. There the cardinal was invested with his official robes, and, returning to the street, the procession moved to the main entrance of the cathedral, where there was a formal reception by Mons. McColgan, and the service for the cardinal's reception was performed for the first time in Baltimore. At the close of the religious service the cardinal returned to the palace and reviewed the procession.

AN APPEAL FROM DAVITT.

The United States should Protest against Pauper Immigration.

NEW YORK, June 7.—The following appeal from Michael Davitt has been cabled to John Fitzgerald, president of the Irish National League in America, Patrick Ford and John Boyle O'Reilly:

COUNTY CLARE, June 7.

The work of exterminating our race is going on daily. The people are contesting every inch of ground with spirit. Their resistance is admirable, but the odds are terribly against them. The tory policy of eviction and forced emigration we resist as one man. The workingmen of America, in their own interest, should protest against this pauper labor being forced upon their market. I would suggest that a deputation of friends of our cause and Knights of Labor wait upon the President of the United States and invite his attention to England's policy of driving thousands of our people every week from Ireland to the States. Humanity and enlightened self-interest unite in urging America to action in this matter. We want means to succor the evicted and make some small recompense to the imprisoned, who sacrifice their liberty in resistance to injustice. Boycott is fighting the battle of Ireland.

MICHAEL DAVITT.

EASTERN NEWS ITEMS.

EX-V. P. WHEELER'S FUNERAL.

MALONE, N. Y., June 7.—The obsequies over the remains of Ex-Vice President Wheeler were held in the Congregational church, every available foot of space in the large edifice being occupied. All business places were closed at noon for the remainder of the day. The body remained at the house until this morning, when at 10 o'clock, after prayer, it was moved to the vestibule of the church, where it lay in state and was viewed for the last time.

At the conclusion of an interesting and impressive ceremony the funeral cortege was formed and wended its way to the beautiful cemetery east of the village, and he is now at rest beside his wife and kindred, who preceded him many years ago. Among the distinguished gentlemen in attendance were ex-President R. B. Hayes and his son Webb.

RESOLUTIONS AGAINST SECRET SOCIETIES.

NEWBURGH, N. Y., June 7.—The synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church of America to-day adopted resolutions declaring secret societies immoral, selfish and unjust, degrading and enslaving to the consciences of their members; that in addition many of them are Christless, yet counterfeit the worship of the church and obstruct her work, and for that reason, as well as secrecy, the members of such societies ought not to be admitted to the church's membership, and that the synod enjoined the courts of the church to refuse admission to members of all secret orders, and to exclude from membership any who may have crept in unawares. In the course of the debate on these resolutions Free Masonry was bitterly denounced.

THE REFORMED CHURCH GENERAL SYNOD.

CLEVELAND, June 7.—There was a spirited discussion in the Reformed church general synod, at Akron, to-day over the liturgy. The directory of worship approved by the synod at Baltimore three years ago was finally adopted as the directory of worship of the Reformed church and incorporated as one of the ordinances of the church. An attempt to bind all the churches to this liturgy was then made, in a motion to rescind all liturgies now in use. This was defeated. After considerable discussion regarding the third Sunday in January as Reformation day, a compromise was finally decided upon which, while the general synod adopts that Sunday, gives the central synod authority to observe any day it sees fit.

AMERICAN MEDICAL ASSOCIATION.

CHICAGO, June 7.—The eighth annual convention of the American Medical Association began here to-day. The attendance of physicians and surgeons from all parts of the country was unexpectedly large. Dr. E. H. Gregory of St. Louis, president of the association, delivered the annual address. The report of the committee on immigrant ships was made. The chairman read the law for the regulation of immigration, and medical espionage relating thereto. After pointing to abuses of the law, he recommended some immediate amendments. The proceedings of the afternoon were conducted in sections. The association will be in session until Friday.

NO YELLOW FEVER ON THE MAINLAND.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., June 7.—The Times-Union to-day, in an editorial summing up the situation, says: There is no yellow fever in Florida, except at Key West, which is on an island nearly 200 miles south of Tampa, and nearly 100 miles from the nearest point on the mainland, which borders on the everglades.

NEW ORLEANS, June 7.—The Times-Democrat's Key West special says: Dr. Moleno and other Cuban physicians who are familiar with the symptoms, deny that the disease prevalent at Key West is genuine yellow fever and assert that it is merely malignant acclimating fever.

INVESTIGATING THE STEAMER COLLISION.

NEW YORK, June 7.—The naval court-martial was commenced this morning before Acting Consul Hoar, to inquire into the cause of the collision between the Celtic and Britannic, both belonging to the White Star Steamship Company, whereby much damage was done and many lives imperiled. The following are the members of the court of inquiry: Wm. Robert Hoar, Capt. McMicken of the Umbria, Capt. John B. Purvis and Capt. Fred Archer of Tower hill. Capt. Perry, Second Officer McKenzie, Fourth Officer Leggitt and lookout Coleman testified, as did also Frederick Sturges of New York, a passenger. Their evidence was much the same as the stories already told about the collision.

ACCIDENT TO A PASSENGER TRAIN.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., June 7.—The passenger train west from North Adams to-night met with an accident at Pownall station. Seven persons are reported slightly injured. The last cars of the train contained the Phillips excursion party from Boston to California. Doctors have gone to the scene in a special train from North Adams.

Among the injured was Charles E. Davis, on his way to California to be married, head cut and left ear removed. A half dozen others were more or less bruised. This excursion party numbered fifty. They will not complete the trip.

THE PRESIDENT CAUGHT NOTHING.

PROSPECT HOUSE, June 7.—The president will get his last full day of fishing to-morrow. His arrangements for leaving the woods are completed, and will be carried out on Thursday. He caught nothing to-day. On Thursday afternoon the party will be driven to the station and take a special train to Albany, by way of the Vermont Central railroad, arriving in that city at an early hour on Friday morning. The party will breakfast at the executive mansion. After a stay of three hours the journey to Washington will be resumed, and it is expected that the party will reach the executive mansion Friday evening.

THE DRY GOODS TRADE.

NEW YORK, June 7.—General trade in wholesale lines is moving along very quietly, but in the main is dissatisfactory. The fact that upward of $2,500,000 worth of flannels and other dry goods were quickly disposed of through auction rooms in two days of the current week, at prices satisfactory to sellers, is pretty good evidence that the country is still in a condition freely to absorb merchandise. The regular trade looks on these auction sales with despair, but as long as there are goods to sell the thing is to reach buyers, and the auction room in these instances is the shortest cut.

A VERY RASH UTTERANCE.

NEW YORK, June 7.—The feeling among Tammany leaders regarding the remarkable meeting Saturday last to welcome O'Brien, finds full expression in the public journals. Francis Twomey, clerk of the board of aldermen, is reported as saying that Dr. McGlynn's remark that "There is more religion in socialism and anarchy than among the Scribes and Pharisees who sit in the chief seats of the synagogues and thank God they are not as other men are," will cost the labor movement 100 supporters where it will give them one.

CONVENTION OF BOOT AND SHOE WORKERS.

BOSTON, June 7.—Several hundred delegates to the great Boot and Shoe Workers' convention in Brockton arrived here yesterday. They came from all parts of the country. The feeling is general that a national organization is necessary, and that the entire control of their affairs should be in their own hands, independent of the Knights of Labor.

BROCKTON, Mass., June 7.—The convention of shoe makers for the purpose of organizing a national trades district opened this morning. The regular business session will not commence till to-morrow.

BOUND TO HAVE BLUE LAWS.

CHICAGO, June 7.—A special from Washington says: The supreme court of the district of Columbia to-day decided that the blue laws which the commissioners were trying to enforce, and which would prevent cigar stores, news rooms and soda water fountains from running on Sunday, were not legally enacted and were consequently void. Now the fathers of the city say that they will enforce an older ordinance which will shut up everything, including newspaper and telegraph offices on the Sabbath.

FLOODS IN PENNSYLVANIA.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., June 7.—Heavy rains of the past forty-eight hours caused all the mountain streams to overflow their banks to-day, and great damage was done in portions of Somerset and Cambria counties. The loss will reach many thousands of dollars. No lives were lost. The water is so high that all the iron mills and most of the business houses were compelled to close down. The city is very gloomy to-night, the gas works being flooded out, and lamps and candles are in good demand.

PLEURO-PNEUMONIA.

NEW YORK, June 7.—Farmers in Westchester county are alarmed at the rapid progress of pleuro-pneumonia among the cattle within the past two weeks. The disease is supposed to have been brought here by an infected drove of milch cows from the west. The bureau of animal industry at Washington has taken the matter in hand, and under their advice a cattle quarantine has been established in the county. There are some 30,000 neat cattle within the territory, valued at $1,203,000.

A DENVER WEDDING.

DENVER, June 7.—The marriage of Lyman J. Gage, a wealthy Chicago gentleman who has been spending the past two months in Denver, and Mrs. Cornelia W. Gage, of Boulder, widow of Mr. Gage's deceased brother, occurred to-day at the residence of Mr. Gage's sister, Mrs. Wesley Brainard, in Twentieth street, Dean Hart officiating. It was an elegant though quiet affair. Mr. and Mrs. Gage will leave this evening for Chicago, their future home.

DECISION IN FAVOR OF A RAILWAY.

ST. LOUIS, June 7.—The decision rendered yesterday by the supreme court in the case in which the St. Louis, Iron Mountain & Southern Railway Company appear as respondent and the city as appellant, makes the railway company independent of local legislation, and gives it right of way through all the streets of the city for its tracks in making any extensions it wishes.

IRON AND STEEL WORKERS.

PITTSBURG, June 7.—The annual convention of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers opened in this city this morning. The convention is the largest ever held by the association.

In the afternoon the time was consumed in hearing the report of the president and the appointment of standing committees.

OLIVER WENDELL HOLMES HOSPITAL.

HUDSON, Wis., June 7.—The formal opening of the Oliver Wendell Holmes hospital occurred here to-day, hundreds of people from the surrounding country and outside states assisting in the proceedings. President Northrup of the State University read a poem written for the occasion by Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes.

INCREASE IN RAILWAY EARNINGS.

PITTSBURG, Pa., June 7.—The annual meeting of the Pennsylvania Company, operating lines west of Pittsburg, was held to-day. The annual report shows a decided increase in volume, both in passenger and freight business. There was a deficit in 1886 on 2773 miles operated of $200,000, as against $1,094,000 in 1885.

SMALLPOX AT CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, June 7.—Several more cases of smallpox were discovered to-day in the house where it was discovered last week. It was thoroughly fumigated, but too late to prevent the spread of the disease, and as a consequence several children were prostrated this morning.

MAKING A TEST CASE.

NEW YORK, June 7.—A test case to decide the matter of the right of the authorities to suppress pool selling on horse races in this city was made to-day by the arrest of a pool seller's clerk by a detective to whom he sold a ticket in the Jerome park races.

VISIBLE GRAIN SUPPLY.

NEW YORK, June 7.—The Produce Exchange reports the visible supply of grain on hand June 4 as follows: Wheat, 42,450,000 bushels; corn, 12,759,000 bushels; oats, 3,475,000 bushels; rye, 250,000 bushels; barley, 184,000 bushels.

FIRE LOSSES FOR MAY.

NEW YORK, June 7.—The Daily Commercial Bulletin in its monthly fire record places the losses for May at 10,592,550. These figures are $2,500,000 larger than the average figures for May during the past twelve years.

CYCLONE IN DAKOTA.

JAMESTOWN, Dak., June 7.—A cyclone, thirty rods in diameter, swept the country thirty miles north of there yesterday, doing considerable damage to crops and horses, and dropping hail as large as hen's eggs.

WHITELAW REID VERY ILL.

NEW YORK, June 7.—Whitelaw Reid, of the Tribune, has been seriously ill from typhoid fever for some days. The physician says he has passed the crisis of his complaint and is now on the road to recovery.

THE ACTORS' FUND.

NEW YORK, June 7.—The annual meeting of the actors' fund was held to-day. A letter from President Cleveland was read, accepting an honorary membership in the fund.

THE MACHINERY CONSTRUCTORS.

PITTSBURG, June 7.—In the convention of machinery constructors to-day, consideration of a constitution and by-laws occupied the entire session.

THE LUTHERAN SYNOD.

OMAHA, Neb., June 7.—To-day's session of the Lutheran general synod was devoted to discussion of educational matters and the Lutheran Historical Society.

INTERNATIONAL TYPOGRAPHICAL UNION.

BUFFALO, N. Y., June 7.—Wm. Almison, of Nashville, Tenn., was to-day re-elected president of the International Typographical Union.

WASHINGTON NEWS ITEMS.

SUTTON, THE CLIPPER MAN, PROTESTS.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—Woodruff Sutton, of New York, has protested to the interstate commerce commission against the suspension of the long and short haul clause of the law in favor of transcontinental railroad lines. Sutton & Co. are engaged in clipper transportation around the continent, and in behalf of clipper lines it is stated that the transcontinental roads have made war upon them. It is alleged that the roads require shippers to enter into contract to ship all by overland freight, and offer lower rates on freight than those accorded the general public. Sutton believes that the Pacific Mail Steamship Company is interested with all the railroad companies in trying to secure suspension of the fourth section of the law, the object being to crush out clipper line competition.

MILITARY TELEGRAPH LINES.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8.—A Washington special to the Chronicle says: Second Lieut. James A. Swift, of the signal service, has been ordered from Washington to San Francisco and Point Reyes, to examine the telegraph line constructed between those points. After the completion of this duty he is to proceed to Ashland, Oregon, to take charge of all the United States military lines transacting a commercial business in California, Oregon and Washington territory. Lieut. Swift is authorized to inspect and condemn such unserviceable property as may need such action of the inspector.

MAIL ROUTE CHANGES.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—Star route changes have been ordered in Oregon as follows: Cheshire to Deadwood, from July 1, 1887, to curtail the route so as to omit Cheshire and begin at Hale, reducing the distance three miles. Prineville to Mitchell, from July 1, 1887, to curtail the route so as to omit Mitchell and end at Howard, reducing the distance thirty-one miles. Eugene City to Florence, from July 1, 1887, to omit Deadwood, without change of distance.

Postoffice at Tinenasleo, Wasco county, Oregon, has been discontinued.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—Reuben Daily, of Indiana, formerly correspondent for the Indianapolis Sentinel, has been appointed stenographer to the interstate commerce commission.

The secretary of the treasury to-day authorized the employment of six nurses to attend the sick in the hospital at Key West, and four guards to protect the property of persons removed to the hospital.

POLICY OF THE TREASURY DEPARTMENT.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—Secretary of the Treasury Fairchild thinks the financial condition of the treasury would indicate that all redeemable bonds are now paid, and that the estimated surplus for next year will be $100,000,000. Forty millions of this will be used to anticipate interest on all outstanding bonds. The secretary will not buy any bonds on the market, because he thinks the premium is high enough now. He does not think that a special session would do his department any good.

ILLEGAL IMPORTATION OF CATTLE.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—Assistant Secretary Maynard has informed the collector of customs at El Paso, Tex., that the department is of the opinion that strict enforcement of the regulations for free entry of domestic animals exported and returned will prevent illegal importation of cattle described by him as having been branded in Mexico with the same brand as that used in the United States, or being the offspring of domestic cattle exported to Mexico for grazing purposes.

JAY GOULD ILL.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—Jay Gould's yacht arrived here this afternoon. Jay Gould was not on the yacht, and the captain of one of the river boats reports him sick at Fortress Monroe. Nothing could be learned about him from those on the vessel.

HIGH TARIFF IN RUSSIA.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—The treasury department is informed through the state department that Russia has raised the import duty on iron and steel and on articles manufactured in whole or in part from these metals from 5 to 30 per cent.

MR. CORCORAN'S CONDITION.

Steeple Chase, full course—Tennessee won, Wellington second, Aurelian third; time, 6:24½.

ANNUAL REGATTAS.

NEW YORK, June 7.—The annual regatta of the Atlantic Yacht Club is taking place to-day. The weather is rainy and the wind very light. The English cutter Galatea is taking part in the race, but both the Atlantic and Priscilla are leading her, the Atlantic by half a mile and the Priscilla by one-eighth of a mile.

The Atlantic beat the Priscilla 16 m. and 11 s. and the cutter Galatea 27 m. and 57 s. and the Shamrock beat the Titania 20 m. and 1 s. If this race can be taken as the standard, the Shamrock is the fastest sloop in America, as on time allowance she would have beaten the Atlantic, an easy winner in the first class, by about ten minutes.

PROGRAMME FOR A TROTTING CIRCUIT.

ROCHESTER, June 7.—At a meeting of the stewards of the grand trotting circuit, held here to-day, the following programme of classes and purses was adopted, subject to change by any association: First day—2:25 class, 2:21 pacing, 2:31 class; second day—2:23 class, 2:18 pacing, 2:27 class; third day—2:25 class, free to all, 2:19 class; fourth day 2:20 class, specials free to all pacing. The purse aggregates $10,000, divided as follows: Cleveland $27,000; Hartford $25,000; Buffalo and Rochester $24,000 each, Utica, Albany and Springfield $16,000 each.

DR. JOHN BULL'S
Smith's Tonic Syrup
FEVER and AGUE
Or CHILLS and FEVER,
AND ALL MALARIAL DISEASES.

The proprietor of this celebrated medicine justly claims for it a superiority over all remedies ever offered to the public for the SAFE, CERTAIN, SPEEDY and PERMANENT cure of Ague and Fever, or Chills and Fever, whether of short or long standing. He refers to the entire Western and Southern country to bear him testimony to the truth of the assertion that in no case whatever will it fail to cure if the directions are strictly followed and carried out. In a great many cases a single dose has been sufficient for a cure, and whole families have been cured by a single bottle, with a perfect restoration of the general health. It is, however, prudent, and in every case more certain to cure, if its use is continued in smaller doses for a week or two after the disease has been checked, more especially in difficult and long-standing cases. Usually this medicine will not require any aid to keep the bowels in good order. Should the patient, however, require a cathartic medicine, after having taken three or four doses of the Tonic, a single dose of KENT'S VEGETABLE FAMILY PILLS will be sufficient. Use no other.

Cancer of the Tongue.

My wife, some three or four years ago, was troubled with an ulcer on the side of her tongue near the throat. The pain was incessant, causing loss of sleep and producing great nervous prostration. Accompanying this trouble was rheumatism. It had passed from the shoulders and centered in the wrist of one hand, she almost losing the use of it. Between the suffering of the two, life had grown burdensome. By the use of a half dozen small-sized bottles of Swift's Specific, she was entirely relieved and restored to health. This was three years ago, and there has been no return of the disease.

ATTORNEY-GENERAL MARSHALL'S REPLY TO HON. T. E. JONES.

Office of the Attorney General of the State of California,
SAN FRANCISCO, March 15, 1887.

Hon. T. E. Jones—My Dear Sir: I have just received your letter of the 12th. Dr. MacLennan has wonderful power. God knows that it's. But he was of great and signal service to me. I would certainly try him if I were in your place. He has worked some wonderful cures within my knowledge.
Respectfully, E. C. MARSHALL.

Charles Crocker, the railroad millionaire, cured of [illegible] in three treatments.

Professor D. Gonzales, San Francisco, was given up by his physicians, no one of Sapped Vitality and Paralysis; was carried, helpless by helpers, to Dr. MacLennan and cured. He now says: "In less than one month I was enabled to resume my old position as professor of music and vocalist at the Tivoli Opera house, and ever since (for over three years) have continued in good health, without the slightest return of my weakness or disease."

Dr. Henry Slade says: "My case was considered incurable by the best physicians, but Dr. MacLennan restored me the use of my limbs in less than twenty minutes, being paralyzed for over four months."

Dr. J. Wilmhurst, M. D., M. R. C. S., now at Abbotsford House, says: "My hearing is completely restored by Dr. MacLennan's manipulation alone."

Rev. A. C. Giles, Mendocino, Cal., says: "The effect which your treatment has on me is truly wonderful. Altogether I feel like a new man."

Dr. C. E. Davis, St. Helena, Cal., cured of nervous prostration, says: "After four days treatment I was entirely relieved. I have now a good appetite and feel well."

Mr. C. W. Kennedy, Cloverdale, proprietor of the stage route to the Geysers; daughter cured of spasms by Dr. MacLennan, after the doctors had pronounced her case incurable.

Mr. J. S. Burlingame left Eureka, Nevada, on a stretcher. After taking a few treatments of Dr. MacLennan he returned a well man.

Dr. MacLennan Treats Successfully
All Broken Down Constitutions, Nervous and General Debility, Weak Spines, Prolapsus, and all kinds of Male and Female Weakness, of a private nature or otherwise, brought on either by abuse or excess. Diseased Liver, Kidneys, Stomach, Spleen, Heart, Lungs, Throat, Head, Eyes and Ears, Internal Ulcers, Loss of Voice, Weakness of the Limbs, Weak Back, Weak Eyes, Dyspepsia, Rheumatism, Asthma, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Deafness, Diabetes, Epilepsy, Consumption, Paralysis, Matured Tumors, Cancers, and many other Chronic and Painful Diseases too numerous to be mentioned.

COMMERCIAL.

TUESDAY, June 7.

The supply of wheat in sight in the United States (exclusive of California and Oregon) and Canada is given by telegraph June 7 as 42,459,871 bushels, a decrease for a week of 752,000 bushels.

Overland receipts include 3 cars wagons, car barbed wire, 300 kegs 75 cs syrup, 18 bls burlaps, car implements, 157 cads 75 cs 100 butts tobacco, 15 cs baking powder, 4 bbls candy, 74 cs boots and shoes, 6 cs dry goods.

A car load of new barley reached San Francisco 4th inst. Last year the first receipt was on May 26, the earliest delivery of record.

A sample of new wheat was shown in San Francisco 4th inst. It was of a lot unduly ripened by hot weather but not particularly hurt. Last year new wheat reached tide water June 5, and sold at $1 25 per cental. The earliest recorded receipt of new is June 2 in 1875 and in 1877. Up to the 4th inst. there had been no receipt of new 1887 wheat.

Spot No. 1 California wheat was selling in Liverpool Tuesday at 8s 1d, or $1 96 per cental. On the same day it could hardly be had in San Francisco for less than $2 05, and earlier in the month it sold up to $2 10, when Liverpool was quoting $1 94. Freight from San Francisco at the same time per wooden ship was at least 20s per ton, or nearly 24c per cental. Taking other charges and expenses of export into consideration and it will be seen what a preposterous figure wheat reached in San Francisco. This too, says the Commercial News, with more than 150,000 tons old wheat in call board warehouses, and probably 50,000 to 100,000 in other warehouses throughout the state, nearly all of which will be available for export, and new wheat coming on the market within a month. Truly Providence and the call board are alike in one respect, for their ways are past finding out.

PRODUCE RECEIPTS—Past 24 hours include 101 bbls flour, 18 sks potatoes, 2150 lbs hides, 15 cs butter, 94 cs eggs, 13 cattle.

WHEAT—Beerbohm cables 26 arrivals of wheat cargoes, and gives the number waiting off coast as 25. Three of these are Oregon. The number of California cargoes over 100 days on passage last Saturday was 17. All these could not have arrived out, so it is certain that several Chilean or Australian cargoes are in the number waiting. The market is reported as firm despite these arrivals. At San Francisco buyer year has declined sharply, but buyer season holds up. Old buyer year sales are fast being settled. Here the market is inactive. In the interior some little business is done at full prices.

FLOUR—There is talk of advancing standards to $5, and one brand will be quoted up to-morrow.

OATS—Advices less favorable and the market favoring buyers.

BUTTER—Plenty, and anything other than choice is slow of sale. The range is 10 to 20c.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

NEW YORK, June 7.—The stock market to-day was somewhat irregular, but prices for the most part occupied a lower range than yesterday. There was considerable selling by foreigners early in the day, which induced traders soon to follow suit. The Grangers, with the exception of St. Paul, were the strongest stocks on the list. Western Union showed considerable weakness, especially in the afternoon, although there were good buying orders in the stock. A majority of the active list are lower this evening, but with the exception of Kansas & Texas, which is down 1 per cent., the changes are for fractional amounts only.

Governments were quiet and steady to firm.
